Explore

The Mövenpick MS Darakum is one of the largest vessels cruising the river Nile between Luxor and Aswan. Its Moroccan inspired design makes it stand out and it offers an unforgettable journey while cruising through 7,000 Years of history. A Variety of recreational activities are available including a swimming pool, sun deck with recreational area, themed parties and a gym. The MS/Darakum operates the long-cruise between Cairo/Aswan and vice versa from Mid of February-Mid of November. It's the new rebirth and unification of the Nile Valley tours. A Cruise for over 600 miles an approximate of 870 KM across Egypt from South to North and vice versa. New experience aboard the cruise to approach the unreachable beauty of Egypt's history and glory of archeology. As the water level goes down from Mid of November-Mid February, the vessel operates the short cruise (Luxor/Aswan and vice versa) during this period.
