Oman and Saudi Arabia

Tour overview

Travel to the birthplace of Islam on our fascinating small-group tour of Oman and Saudi Arabia.

Oman is an independent sultanate on the Arabian Peninsula. Covering a strategic location on the Arabian Sea, Oman was coveted by the great powers that came and went. In the late 1400's, the Portuguese occupied much of the territory, including the capital, Muscat. Almost 100 years later, the Ottomans drove them out and occupied the region for some 100 years. The Persians also came and went briefly. Since 1741, it has been self-governing. The country occupies just over 300,000 square km and has a population of over 4 million, with the overwhelming majority being Muslim. Oman is famous for breeding its Arabian horses. Muscat, Oman's port capital, sits on the Gulf of Oman, which is surrounded by mountains and desert. With a history dating back to antiquity, it blends high-rises and upscale shopping malls with cliff-top landmarks such as the 16th-century Portuguese forts, Al Jalali and Mirani, which loom over Muscat Harbour. Its modern, marble-clad Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, with a 50m dome and prodigious Persian carpet, can accommodate 20,000 people.

Saudi Arabia is a culturally rich destination, but it remains off the tourist trail. It encompasses a vast expanse of arid desert and mountains. The second largest country in the Arab world (after Algeria), it is an enormous 2,150,000 square kilometres and the only nation with coastlines on the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf. Home to Mecca and Medina, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is the spiritual caretaker of the two holiest shrines in the Islamic world, a role it takes seriously. Staunchly traditional, the country's citizens are required by law to be Muslims. Saudi Arabia is also a land with a vibrant cultural pedigree. Away from the glitz and glamour of its oil-rich, ostentatiously wealthy modern cities, the country is laden with World Heritage sites and remote mountain villages. Amongst the rock-hewn splendours of Madain Saleh, you can find Nabatean treasures on par with those at Petra. At the same time, the mud-brick ruins of Diriyah provide a fascinating insight into the origins of the Saud Dynasty. The mountains of the southwest are home to a surprising collection of traditional villages that still echo the past, whilst the haunting ruins of Al Ula offer a chance to explore one of the most impressive ghost towns in the Middle East.

Activity rating: Moderate

Exploring Ibra is a journey through time, highlighting Oman's enduring traditions. At Zukait, we'll view the old beehive tombs. Like those of Bat, the tombs of Zukait bear witness to the expansion of an ancient civilisation present on Omani territory as early as 3000 BC. Set overlooking the village, the site features several cylindrical towers constructed from tightly packed stones without mortar. The archaeological missions in the immediate vicinity attest to the ancient existence of a vast Hafit-style necropolis, comprising hundreds of burials. Souk Al-Zal is found in the Al-Dirah neighbourhood in the heart of Riyadh. It is one of Riyadh's oldest traditional markets with much history within its alleyways. Known for its traditional mud-brick architecture, Ad Diriyah is home to the revitalised Al Bujairi, a pedestrianised maze of winding alleyways with cafes and craft shops. Cultural sites include the Diriyah Museum, a former palace with exhibits on Saudi history, and the restored Al-Zawihra Mosque. A river lined with date palms runs through the Wadi Hanifah valley, a popular spot for the locals. Day 12, Thursday 12th November RIYADH – AL ULA

After breakfast, we'll depart from Riyadh Airport to Al Ula Airport (flight TBA). Maraya is an architectural wonder that has quickly reached icon status. This magnificent mirrored structure in Al Ula's Ashar Valley will make you feel that your eyes are deceiving you as Maraya seems to disappear into the surrounding sandstone cliffs before swiftly reappearing. A multi-purpose venue for concerts, events and conferences, Maraya – meaning 'mirror' in Arabic – is the largest mirrored building in the world and is a piece of art in itself. The group will have a dinner here which will be an amazing experience! Stay at the Habitas Hotel for three nights. B/L/D

Day 13, Friday 13th November AL ULA

Formerly known as Al-Hijr or Hegra in Greek (UNESCO-listed), Madain Saleh was a pivotal city in the Nabatean Kingdom, flourishing from the 2nd century BCE until the Roman conquest in 106 CE due to its strategic location along the caravan trade route. Our guided tour will delve into the mysteries of its tombs, ancient inscriptions, stone structures, and more. Experience the beauty and history of Al Ula's Heritage Oasis Trail on this 3km walking tour. Guided by experts, you'll enjoy AlUla's warm hospitality with dates, dried fruits, and coffee before embarking on a scenic journey. Discover lush farmlands, picturesque views, and iconic palm swings. Al Ula is the largest ancient city after Makkah. Its ancient houses, alleys and unique design impress everyone who visits it, as its people built it in a maze-like village. The adjoining mud buildings provided protection against enemy attacks. Moussa Ben Noussair Castle forms an amazing view of the town's details. Many Islamic monuments characterise the site of the old town (now abandoned), the most important one is Masjid Al-Izam in the southeast of the town. Its foundation dates back to the Prophet (PBUH), who stopped there to pray on his way to the Battle of Tabuk. It was called Al-Izam (bones) because its place was marked with bones. B/L/D

Day 14, Saturday 14th November AL ULA – KHAYBAR – AL MADINAH

Dating back to the 1st century BC, Dadan was the capital of the Dadan and Lihyan kingdoms and features inscriptions and several tombs. Jabal Ikmah features many various rock art inscriptions – like an open-air library of multiple languages from Aramaic, Minaic, Nabataean, Thamudic to Dadanitic. Then we will visit Elephant Rock. Unlike the ornate, hand-carved facades of nearby Hegra's Nabataean tombs, this monolithic red sandstone beast's "trunk" and "body" were shaped by natural forces – millions of years of wind and water erosion. For dinner tonight, we'll immerse ourselves in an unforgettable dining experience at a secluded venue tucked amidst ancient rocks, where every moment is touched by magic. As you savour each exquisite dish, let the rhythm of the music and the enchanting ambience make this special dinner an unforgettable journey for all your senses. B/L/D

Day 15, Sunday 15th November AL MADINAH

After breakfast at the hotel, we will depart from Al Ula and head to Khaybar, where you'll embark on a journey through time in the oasis, a cradle of ancient civilisation. Before the arrival of Islam in the 7th century, the area had been inhabited by Arabian Jewish tribes until it fell to Muslim conquerors under Muhammad during the Battle of Khaybar in 628 CE. Dinner tonight is at Takya Restaurant, a wonderfully contemporary and colourful twist on traditional Saudi cooking. Accompanying this special dining experience are fabulous views over the Khaybar landscape while you eat. Your hotel for just one night is the Sofitel Shahid Al Madina. B/L/D

Day 16, Monday 16th November AL MADINAH – JEDDAH

After breakfast, the group will visit the Museum of the Prophet Muhammad Mosque, a significant cultural and historical site commemorating the life and teachings of the Prophet Muhammad, the central figure of Islam. This museum showcases artifacts, manuscripts, and exhibits depicting various aspects of the Prophet's life, including his birth, childhood, prophethood, teachings, and legacy. Then we will see The Prophet's Mosque – the second mosque built by the Islamic prophet Muhammad in Medina; after that, we'll visit Quba, the second largest mosque and the holiest site in Islam, after the Masjid al-Haram in Mecca, in the Saudi region of the Hejaz. The Quba Mosque is one of the oldest mosques in Islam and holds great significance as the first mosque built by the Prophet Muhammad after his migration from Mecca to Medina. Explore the historical and spiritual significance of Mount Uhud near Medina, the site of the pivotal Battle of Uhud in 625 AD. Then, we will discover Madinah's bustling local markets, filled with colours, scents, and cultural wonders. Explore authentic treasures and immerse yourself in the city's vibrant heritage. Transfer to the train station for our trip to Jeddah, where we'll stay at The Shangri-La Hotel for a two-night stay. Dinner at the hotel. B/L/D

Day 17, Tuesday 17th November JEDDAH

For a fascinating look into Jeddah's long and cosmopolitan past, we'll take a trip to the Tayebat Museum for a curated representation of the city's 2,500-year history. Then the group will visit the Jeddah Yacht Club to admire its highlight: a 20-metre-high steel-and-glass structure resembling a ship's mast, reflecting the sun and sea. Across the water stands the renowned "floating mosque," elevated on pillars just above sea level, our next stop. Enhanced by advanced sound and lighting technologies, it showcases a blend of Islamic and traditional architecture, radiating serenity and beauty, particularly when illuminated by the sun. The next stop is Old Town Jeddah, which boasts old buildings, a traditional souk and many restaurants. Visitors can walk through the old streets and experience the traditional landscape of the old town – a glimpse of old Saudi Arabia. Dinner tonight is at one of Jeddah's top fine dining spots, Nafoura. Enjoy international and Middle Eastern cuisines, fresh produce, and stunning Red Sea views. B/L/D
